

ОБЩИНА БУРГАС

официален уеб сайт

On May 31 and June 1, 2018, Burgas will be the next stop on the European Maritime Day. The event is officially part of the calendar of the Bulgarian presidency of the European Union. It will offer plenary and thematic sessions (involving high-level political leaders and key experts), seminars, exhibition area, and a host of complementary events.

The event will be held in the building of Burgas Free University, located in the very center of the city.

Additional information about accompanying events can be found at: <https://burgasmaritimefestival.com/>