

Imperial Russian Ballet embodies the unity and integrity of the Russian Ballet School, the traditions and the continuity that are passed on from generation to generation. They are not influenced either by time or by space, and are perceived as a true creative Empire.

Tickets for the ballet "Swan Lake" can be bought from the cash desk of the Opera House and from here.