About 90 phototype copies of unique engravings from the Russo-Turkish War of Liberation can be seen in the city of Burgas, from March 2 to April 20 at the Burgas Art Gallery "Petko Zadgorski". The engravings are provided by the Art Gallery in Stara Zagora.

Many of them found a place in illustrative magazines and newspapers in Germany, Spain, France, Austria in 1877 and 1878.

Arranged chronologically, they are a kind of report on the events from the declaration of war to its end on March 3, 1878.
