

"Burgas fortified during the Balkan War 1912 - 1913" is the title of an exhibition of RIM - Burgas, which will be exhibited from March 2 at the Historical Museum at 31 Lermontov Street, on the occasion of the Day of Thrace (March 26). The exhibition presents original documents, photos and military diaries, which present a different aspect of the wartime everyday life of Burgas. The emphasis is on the establishment and operation of the Burgas fortification. He performed the difficult task of organizing the defense of the Black Sea coast from Obzor to Ineada. Information about all this was taken from the personal archive of Major Hristo G. Popov - assistant - commandant of the checkpoint at that time. Anyone who shows a deeper interest in the topic can find in the museum shop the scientific edition tracing the formation and activity of the Burgas fortified during the Balkan War 1912 - 1913. Its author and compiler is Yana Ivanova - historian in RIM - Burgas.
