The biggest Ethnographic Exposition in South-East Bulgaria occupies a beautiful house from the second half of the 19th century, situated near the Cathedral St.St.Cyril and Methodius. The exposition presents the city culture of Old Burgas. Here visitors can admire the most attractive collection of Bulgarian traditional costumes, covering all ethnographic groups in the Burgas region, including the clothing of the Thracian refugees from the land that nowadays is part of Greece and Turkey. Visitors can see unique festive clothing from the 19th century, illustrating various rites and celebrations, typical for Burgas region only: ritual costumes of "Nestinarka", "Enyov's wife", "Lazarka" and wedding clothing.

The Natural History Museum in Burgas is the only one in the Southeast Black Sea Coast. Its exhibition showcases the geo-historical development and contemporary natural diversity of Southeast Bulgaria and helps protect the unique nature of the area. The museum includes the unique collections "The magical world of rocks", "The flora and fauna in Strandzha Mountain", "Bird resources of the Burgas lake area".

Many educational programs use the rich database of the Museum. It offers to the young people a modern way to learn about the biodiversity in the Burgas region through pictures and videos. For the most inquisitive schoolchildren the Museum offers eco-club, summer eco-school, competition for the Cup of the Natural History Museum, etc.

HISTORICAL EXPOSITION
