

111 YOUNG TEACHERS RECEIVED AWARDS FOR STARTING THEIR CAREERS IN BURGAS

Monday, 1 November 2021

For the sixth consecutive year, the number of young people who have chosen the path of the teaching profession in Burgas is growing. The young teachers who are starting their professional development in the field of education in Burgas this year are 111. On today's holiday of the national awakeners they received awards for the start of their teaching career. The initiative of Mayor Dimitar Nikolov is held for the 6th year in a row and aims to encourage young teachers who have chosen to dedicate themselves to the profession that underlies all other professions.
