A new attractive video shows the advantages and results of the innovative program for early foreign language training for preschool children introduced 6 years ago in Burgas kindergartens and schools. The program, which started in 2015 on the idea of Mayor Dimitar Nikolov, has already covered more than 3,600 children in 132 kindergarten groups and 1,780 students in 83 groups from the initial stage of education.

It provides completely free English language training to young children and their preparation for upgrading this foreign language knowledge at a higher stage of their education.
