

Burgas is one of the finalists in the Walltopia initiative to create modern attractions in several cities

Tuesday, 8 June 2021

In January, the Bulgarian company Waltopia - a world leader in the creation and construction of climbing walls and attractions-announced that it will invest more than BGN 2 million in the construction of two active entertainment facilities in two Bulgarian municipalities. Yesterday, the company officially announced that the cities with which the work continues - Plovdiv, Burgas, Varna, Veliko Tarnovo, Belogradchik, Balchik, Dupnitsa and Sofia - the municipality of Slatina. Its representatives have already visited many of the listed localities to learn about the opportunities on the ground.

