

Burgas celebrates its 143 years of Liberty

Saturday, 6 February 2021

The official celebrations about 143 of liberty of Burgas from Ottoman ruling began by tradition – with a ritual of raising the national flag of Bulgaria on “Atanas Sirekov” Square. The documental exhibition “The road to freedom” was presented in the exhibition hall of the Historical Museum. Different texts, documents, photos and engravings, which led to the 3rd of Marchin 1878, are included in the exhibition.

