

Burgas musicians can apply for funding for their project with the Ministry of Culture

Wednesday, 17 March 2021

The Ministry of Culture opened a session to support creative projects in the field of music. Projects for the creation of works, events, concerts, and performances in the field of musical art will be financially supported. They must be realized by cultural organizations carrying out professional activity in the field of musical art, which are not state or municipal cultural institutes.