

Two camps were transported to their native places and tons of garbage were cleaned after them

Tuesday, 9 March 2021

Intruders from Yambol and Sliven have built their improvised huts behind the “Hemus” company and next to the old vegetable market. In the first place, 9 shelters, made of any materials, were removed, and from the other one 10. Some of them were located two meters from the railway line.

