

THE TEAM OF "ME AND MY WOMEN" PRESENTS FOR THE FIRST TIME THE LAST EPISODE OF THE SERIES IN BURGAS

Thursday, 10 February 2022

On February 17, at 8 pm in the Toncho Rusev Auditorium of the NHC Cultural Center, part of the team of the series "Me and My Women", which is currently broadcast on BNT1, will premiere the last episode in Burgas. The miniseries was shot almost entirely in the city and is co-financed by the Municipality of Burgas. The screenplay is by Teodora Markova, Nevena Kertova and Georgi Ivanov, directed by Boya Harizanova and directed by Boris Lukanov. It is a comedy drama that tells the story of surgeon Philip (Dimitar Zhivkov), who found himself in a parallel relationship with two different women - Christina (Maria Sotirova) in Sofia and Maya (Christina Dzhurova) in Burgas. The plot of the series presents the consequences of consumer life at high speeds, which has become a major disease of modern society. The life torments of the characters will lead them to a series of comic situations.
