

---

You want to call someone from the library? You can, but in a red cabin one, as if you are in London!

Monday, 15 February 2021

A bright red telephone cabin, just like the ones in the United Kingdom, is now a part of the interior of the new library in Burgas. It is placed in the “Art” department and it is not only an interior decision, but a place where you can call somebody and not disturb others.

