

THE CULTURAL SPLENDOR OF BURGAS SHONE IN THE FIRST "GALA OF LAUREATES"

Monday, 2 December 2024

Kerana Angelova – Public favorite in Germany's The Hot List with her novel Sunflowers for Maria, performed by Georg Kiryakov and Virginia Hristova.

Trepetlika Choir, directed by Pepa Zapryanova – Special jury award at the International Choir Festival in Provence, France.

Theodora Kurteva, 11, from Dobri Chintulov High School – First place at the International Folklore Competition Art Talents, Croatia.

Martina Kondaklieva and Kristian Donchev from Club "Burgas - 1975" – Champions at the German Open Championship in Sports Dance.

Bozhana Slavkova – Winner of the international poetry contest Mili Duels.

Arina Shilo – First place at the 10th National Youth Acting Competition in Plovdiv.

Simeon Slavev – First place in the popular song contest Burgas and the Sea.

Teodora Veleva – Winner of the first edition of Burgas and the Sea for young performers.

Vasilena Atanasova from NUMSI "Prof. Pancho Vladigerov" – A two-time laureate of the National Acting

Competition in Plovdiv 2024.

Donika Manoilova – Laureate of the International Ballet Competition Sara Nora Prima 2024.

Violinist Olga Doikova – Third place at the International Violin Competition Mimas Music Festival, Italy; first prize at the Varban Varbanov National Competition for Bulgarian Music Performance.

Maria Vandeva, 16 – Specially invited to perform at Plovdiv Jazz Summer, laureate of Youth Music Days – SOLiSiMi.

Plamena Georgieva – Two-time champion in youth breaking at the World Championship Bgirl Fire Bird Breaking Champion, under-18 girls.

Burgas has set the stage for a new tradition, one that promises to inspire and showcase its immense artistic talent year after year.

