

On the 4th of February Bulgarovo celebrates the Liberation from the ottomans.

Tuesday, 2 February 2021

On February the 4th the town of Bulgarovo celebrates the Liberation from the ottomans. The honoring of the memory of the murdered orthodox Christians, which comes with a tale for the dramatic actions in the once-named village Urum Enikoi takes place in the church "St. Athanasius" and its yard. The event lasts 40 minutes that include a prayer to the dead ones, a show and a leaving flowers on the memorial and the crypt in the church's yard.