

The municipality plants 200 trees in “Democracy”, “Cyril and Methodius”, “Yuri Venelin” and “Kliment Ohridski”

Wednesday, 3 February 2021

This spring, the Municipality of Burgas will plant 200 trees on the streets "Democracy", "Cyril and Methodius", "Yuri Venelin" and "Kliment Ohridski". Repairs are progressing on them or will soon begin with the laying of new asphalt and the construction of new sidewalks. The new vegetation there will be of species with a shallow root system, suitable for urban environments. The initiative is part of the project “Plant a tree”.
