

The First Lady of Contemporary Literature - Zdravka Evtimova, will share the subtleties of creative writing with talented young citizens of Burgas

Saturday, 10 April 2021

This Sunday, April 11, at 17.00 in the new library we welcome the popular writer and scholar Zdravka Evtimova. This is her first visit to Burgas. Many of her colleagues define her as the first lady in our contemporary literature and a master of short stories. The respected writer will meet with young people and students, and the topic of discussion is "The youth of Bulgaria is talented." The meeting will discuss the basic requirements, interesting literary works and different methods of structuring in the preparation of a text.
