

Burgas Municipality received the "Smart Administration" award at Webit AVARDS. Mayor Nikolov: This prize is for all young citizens of Burgas!

Wednesday, 26 April 2017
Posted by: Stefan Minchev

During the biggest event for digital economy and technologies-Webit festival Europe,the Municipality of Burgas was awarded in the "Smart Administration"category.It is about the introduced technological solutions that facilitate administrative procedures,prove real-time information and improve communication between citizens and local authorities.

"This prize is for all the young citizens of Burgas,with the introduced mobile applications together solving the problems of the city,"said Mayor Nikolov in receiving the prize.The best digital projects,innovators and integrators of technology solutions in Bulgaria,Central and Eastern Europe were honored during the festival.The Webit Awards show to a eide audience and promote quality business models,social projects and policy initiatives in the new digital and technology markerts.

The Webit AWARDS juri consists of dozens of world leaders in the field of individual awards,as well as local representatives of industry assotiations,scientists and public sector representative.

This year,the festival gathered 5000 people from over countries in Sofia Tech Park and more than 300 lectures shared invaluable experiance from leading global companies,helping us to adapt to the trends that will change life in Europe and world radically in the next few years.

during this big event,the Mayor Dimitar Nikolov has used the opportunity to once again promote Burgas as a welcoming destination for companies from the IT and outsourcing industry.