

Burgas was awarded as City of Knowledge

Wednesday, 10 April 2019
Posted by: Stefan Minchev

Burgas was awarded as City of Knowledge as part of the Darik Radio list Best city for Living for its politic and innovations in the field of education. The award was given to the mayor Dimitar Nikolov by the minister of education Krasimir Valchev.

Burgas gets this special honours for the investments in the educational infrastructure, opening new schools, programs for early language learning, healthy lifestyle and eating and new methods in schools and kindergartens.