18 attractive concerts are included in the program of Summer Music Holidays 2010. This year the Burgas festival of classical music will continue from 5 July to 19 August. It will begin with a concert of composer Angel Zaberski and his orchestra, and will end with "Actors by notes" - concert of Itsko Finzi and Rashko Mladenov, who apart from their roles in movies and theater, are known as good musicians.

Posted on Summer music holidays are titles such as "Carmen", "Turandot", "A Masked Ball," "Aida," "Bat" and others. Performances will be held in several places - in the Open Air Theatre, the hall and art center of the Opera, the Philharmonic hall. Again Burgas will visit renowned soloists from abroad as well as the best Bulgarian opera voices.

These and other details about the festival, shared during the press conference the Deputy Mayor of Bourgas municipality Yordanka Ananieva and the Director of the Burgas Opera and Philharmonic Society Alexander Tekeliev. The tickets will cost 10 BGN and for pensioners - 4 BGN.

"We do things despite the crisis. The festival already has a loyal audience and we will continue to help it," said Yordanka Ananieva.

Alexander Tekeliev thanked the Municipality for their support and announced Summer music holidays for the most prestigious event of its kind in Bulgaria. He expressed the opinion that similar festivals of classical music in Sofia, Varna and Rousse at the time are away from the scale of Burgas.

In 2010 Burgas Municipality supports the organization of the Summer music holidays with the amount of BGN

38 000. According to Mayor Dimitar Nikolov is an important event in the cultural calendar of Burgas, which contributes to its glory of a festival city.
