

The world-famous biochemist and honorary citizen of Burgas, academician Evgeni Golovinski, has died

Wednesday, 17 March 2021

The world-famous biochemist academician Evgeni Golovinski died on March 12.

"It is with sorrow that I learned only today about the demise of this great mind, our honorary citizen, and a serious lobbyist for the development of Burgas in a modern way. Although belatedly, I express my sincere condolences to his relatives, friends, and colleagues. Burgas will not forget him, his eternal memory! ", said on this sad occasion the mayor Dimitar Nikolov.