

A charity event related to helping people in need is being organized in front of the “Saints Cyril and Methodius” school

Monday, 22 February 2021

The management student council of “Saints Cyril and Methodius” stated that on the 25th and 26th of February they’ll organize a charity event a charity event. It will be held in front of the school. The collected funds will be given to charity.