

Silvano Prandi called in two Burgas men in the national volleyball team

Thursday, 22 April 2021

The selector of the national men's volleyball team of Bulgaria, Silvano Prandi called in two Burgas men in the expanded composition which will be preparing itself for the matches of the League of Nations. Denis Karyagin and Georgi Petrov are added to the group. Both of them play the position of receiver. The 18 year old Karyagin made a strong season with his hometown team "Neftokhimik 2010" with which he won the cup and the supercup of the country and became vice-champion.

Georgi Petrov, who is also an offspring of the Burgas volleyball school played during the season with the team of the French "Shomon", where senior coach is precisely Silvano Prandi.
