

Talented dance K-pop group from Burgas wins fans from all over the world

Tuesday, 30 March 2021

They are the Countdown – young, talented girls, who were assembled out of their shared love for the K-pop culture. The result is several very successful YouTube videos, participation in prestigious dance forums and a lot of followers and fans of various nationalities on all social networks. Their impressive videos are photographed in beautiful places in the city such as the Sea Station, the conference centre, the “Troika” Square and many more, popularizing their home city - Burgas.
