

Children from all over the country can participate in the competition for a drawing “Me, my city and the sea”

Thursday, 22 April 2021

For yet another year Rotary club Burgas – Pirgos, Burgas Municipality and PDSC – Burgas organize a competition for a drawing “Me, my city and the sea”. Throughout the years the initiative is enjoying the large interest of children and students from Burgas. This is the reason for it becoming national, starting this year.

The goal of the competition is to provoke and discipline love to the Rotary movement, positive attitude toward the hometown and our sea, preserving of the cultural – historical values and environment. An opportunity is being given to talented children from Bulgarian and their teachers to popularize their artistic opportunities and skills.
