

There are still vacancies for users of the latest social service "Assistant support"

Monday, 1 March 2021

There are still vacancies for users of the latest in Burgas social service "Assistant Support" of Home Social Patronage. This is a specialized social service that includes daily hourly care and support in the home environment for children and people with permanent disabilities and people over working age in inability to self-care.