" The deputy mayor Krasimir Stoychev asks for a higher activity within the local firms.

The Informational Business Forum themed "Do you want your business to grow? We have experts and know-hows" took place at "Petya Dubarova" concert hall at Cultural Centre "Sea Casino" in Burgas. Over 60 businessmen and representatives of all small and medium companies in the city and region took part in it.

"We are available for business companies as administration and we are hoping to have new projects for development of the business circle", stated the deputy mayor of Burgas Krasimir Stoychev at the opening of the forum. Stoychev talked about the long experience of the Municipality in partnership with European Bank of Reconstruction and Development and invited the regional companies to be active and take advantage of the bank program's pros for support of small business.
