

Burgas Dances from 13th to 17th of May on Troykata Square

Thursday, 18 April 2019

The festival Burgas Dances will be held from 13th till 17th of May from 18:30 on Troykata Square. Again amateurs and professionalists will be able to demonstrate their skills and talent in dancing. In this year's edition of the festival, many surprises are prepared. One of them is the participation of the burgasian DJ Maximilian and the young and beautiful singer Silviya Koleva, who will contribute to the good vibes of the participants. Burgas Municipality will prepare a special booklet with information about every dance school in the city and the styles they present.
